Frequently Asked Questions
FAQ #1:

Should I contact my #1 program and tell them that I am going to rank them #1?
FAQ #2

During my interview, the PD asked me about other programs to which I had applied and how I plan to rank them. Must I provide that information?
This report displays information about graduate medical education institutions and programs that have violated the National Resident Matching Program’s Match Participation Agreement. Institution and program information is displayed permanently on the Institution and Program Violations report. Term limits of any sanction(s) are included to identify the length of time the sanction is in effect.

Statement
The Radiology-Diagnostic program American Hospital Center offered a 2011 Main Residency Match applicant a position to begin training on July 1, 2012. The applicant had matched to a position in another program for a July 1, 2012 start date.

Sanction
The NRMP has identified the Radiology-Diagnostic program at American Hospital Center as a match violator in the NRMP’s Registration, Ranking, and Results (R3) System until 12/07/2012.
FAQ #3:

• Should I go back to my favorite program for a ____ visit? (fill in the blank with any number)
FAQ #4:

• Should I believe all of those flattering comments they made about me when I visited the program?
Dear Applicant:

We have thoroughly enjoyed your visit with us and it is clear that you will excel wherever you choose to go.

You represent the kind of candidate that has traditionally done well in our program and we hope to have the opportunity to work with you in the coming year.*

Yours sincerely,

Program Director

* (Note: This letter is sent to all applicants who interview with us, including those we won’t rank)
FAQ #5:

• How should I rank programs?
How should I rank programs?

• What are the main qualities I am looking for in a program? What are YOUR critical factors?
• How well does each program rank in each quality?
• Assess competitiveness
  – Specialty
  – Program
  – Yourself
• Make your ROL long enough

First, assign relative weights to the attributes you value into light orange boxes not fill darker orange boxes, as these are sums of the attributes within that cat (eg. the "Faculty" is a sum of "availability", "stability", and "interest"). Individual attributes and categories will sum to the dark orange box at the bottom (which should come to 100, adjust attribute weights to fit if not).

• Couples must register both partners’ AAMC IDs in their NRMP files

• Your NRMP/AAMC ID and your ERAS/AAMC ID must be the SAME
Submitting the Rank Order List

- Remember to designate a supplemental list for each PGY-2 position

- Include preliminary positions at bottom of the MAIN ROL if you want a PGY-1 position, even if you don’t match into a PGY-2 spot.

- COUPLES can NOT link Prelims

- Review with your Advising Dean
Fees

- Registration fee $75
- Late registration $50 additional (after Nov 30)
- Couples $15 per partner
- Primary ROL 1-20 unique programs: No charge
- Additional programs $30/program ranked
- Supplemental ROL(s) 1-20 unique programs: No charge
- Additional programs $30/program ranked on all supplemental lists combined
- Couples ROL 20 unique programs each before extra fees are charged
Advice about the ROL

• Prepare a rank order list worksheet with the correct program codes in order of preference before entering “My Rank Order List”

• DO NOT INCLUDE ANY PROGRAMS ON YOUR RANK ORDER LIST TO WHICH YOU DO NOT WANT TO MATCH!!!!

• Be sure to certify your rank order list

• Certify your ROL any time you make a CHANGE

• Complete your list at least a week before the deadline

• RELAX!
