About ERAS®
ERAS has four components: MyERAS for applicants, the Dean’s Office Workstation, the Program Director’s Workstation and the Letter of Recommendation Portal.

AAMC Standardized Video Interview
All ERAS 2018 applicants to ACGME-accredited...
Components of ERAS

- MyERAS is the website where applicants complete their MyERAS Application, select programs to apply to, and assign documents to be received by programs.

- DWS is the software used by the Designated Dean's Office. From this software, medical school staff create the ERAS electronic token that applicants use to access MyERAS. They also use this system to scan and attach supporting documents to the application, such as medical school transcripts and the MSPE. These documents are then transmitted to the ERAS PostOffice.
Components of ERAS

- PDWS is the ERAS software used by program staff to receive, sort, review, evaluate, and rank applications.

- LoRP a tool that enables LoR Authors and administrative users to upload letters directly to ERAS.

- ERAS PostOffice is the central bank of computers that transfer the application materials from applicants and their designated dean's office to residency programs.
How ERAS Works

- Applicants receive an electronic token from their Designated Dean's Office (Marta Bergez) and use it to register with MyERAS – June 6 goes live

- Applicants complete their MyERAS application, select programs, assign supporting documents, and transmit their application to programs.

- Schools receive notification of the completed application, and start transmitting supporting documents: transcripts, MSPE.

- Examining boards receive and process requests for score reports.

- Programs contact the ERAS PostOffice on a regular basis to download application materials.
Application Process Guideline

- Research/Contact programs of interest to find out their requirements and deadlines
- Once you receive token, you can Register on MyERAS
- Create your Profile and MyERAS Application
- You will upload docs, school will upload, letters will be uploaded by writers
- Register for your Match SEPARATELY

FINANCES
The Cost of Applying for a Medical Residency

While the costs associated with securing a residency may be a relatively minor part of your medical education expenses, they can add up quickly. Since these fees are not covered by student loans, it is important to try and keep these costs under control. Typical costs are summarized below.

Electronic Residency Application Service (ERAS)
ERAS®—The Electronic Residency Application Service—transmits residency applications, letters of recommendation, and other supporting materials to participating programs. For additional details, including application process guidelines and a list of participating programs and specialties, please visit ERAS.

MyERAS, the site where you complete your residency application automatically calculates your fees. For additional details, including application process guidelines and a list of participating programs and specialties, please visit ERAS.
